

One of Mitt Romney's report cards from Cranbrook School, in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, dated 1961.

CRANBROOK SCHOOL
Bloomfield Hills, Michigan

Report Romney, Mitt Form III For the period Ending November 10, 1961

COURSE	MARK	MASTER'S COMMENT
English 3	B+	Doing fine work. He can do a lot better too. JBL
Elementary Algebra	B	Mitt started the course with "A" grades. He tended to let up on time spent studying and had a low mark on his last test. He wastes much time in class. FHG
Biology	B	Mitt shows originality and imagination. He has had some trouble with Genetics. JHG
French 1	C	He was averaging honors work on short tests, and this fact may have lulled him into a false sense of knowledge which prevented his reviewing adequately for the quarterly. His effort and interest are admirable; he can easily work up to honors. HRC
Art 3	B-	Mitt has real ability in painting but he is not as industrious or as responsible as he might be. PK

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

Comments will be made if it is thought they would be helpful to either parent or student. If comments are omitted, it may be assumed that effort and adjustment are satisfactory.

Mitt is doing well. He is a more responsible citizen this year.
